AFFIDAVIT OF DOMICILE

To be completed for decedent transfers or redemptions only. If available, please provide, where applicable, a small estate affidavit/documentation or a copy of the letters testamentary (or similar appointment documentation) relating to the decedent's estate.

- A small estate affidavit (or similar documentation as applicable under state law) may be used to transfer property to heirs where the value of the estate falls below a minimum value. This amount and other requirements vary by state. Please consult the small estate procedures for the decedent's state. Each state has a procedure for authorizing authority over an estate that is not subject to probate.
- Letters testamentary are the documents that a probate court issues to the executor of an estate, authorizing the executor to settle the estate according to the terms of the decedent's will. These documents sometimes have other names such as Letters of Administration or Letters of Appointment
